Impact of Repealing Toronto Land Transfer Tax on Voting Intentions

Source City of Toronto Boundary Data acquired from Open Data Toronto. www.toronto.ca/open. Figures from public opinion polling conducted by Ekos Research Associates, May 2012 Less Likely (50% or Higher) Figure shown is the percentage that are less likely to vote for their Councillor if their Councillor votes to repeal the TLTT

More Likely (50% or Higher) Figure shown is the percentage that are more likely to vote for their Councillor if their Councillor votes to repeal the TLTT

More Likely (Plurality) Figure shown is the percentage that are more likely to vote for their Councillor if their Councillor votes to repeal the TLTT