

Past President's Scholarship 2024 Application Form

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CAREFULLY AND COMPLETELY.

Scholarship Overview

The Toronto Regional Real Estate Board's (TRREB) Past President's Scholarships are awarded annually to graduating secondary school students pursuing higher learning who show an interest in a field related to the real estate industry* while possessing leadership qualities and community service experience and/or volunteerism.

Scholarship Details

Eight (8) Scholarships totalling $22,000 are awarded annually. Each of the two essay topics (see 4.a. below) may have a first-, second-, third- and fourth-place winner. The scholarships include:

- Two first-place awards of $5,000 each,
- Two second-place awards of $2,500 each,
- Two third-place awards of $2,000 each, and
- Two fourth-place awards of $1,500 each.

Eligibility Requirements

1. This scholarship is applicable to students currently in their final year at an Ontario secondary school who are pursuing post-secondary education after graduation, for example, at a college, university, or trade school. Students must currently reside in the province of Ontario and be registered with a secondary school within the province of Ontario. Applicants must also be a Canadian citizen or have been given permanent resident status. Applicants applying to a post-secondary school outside of Ontario (or even Canada), are still eligible for the scholarship. NOTE: Students must currently be enrolled and attending their final year of secondary school – individuals currently taking a gap year are not eligible to apply.
2. Applications must be submitted via email to scholarships@trreb.ca before 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday, March 27, 2024.
3. Applicants must have a record of academic achievement, show an interest in a field related to the real estate industry (*see 4.e. for details) and possess leadership qualities and community service experience and/or volunteerism.
4. Applicants MUST complete the Personal Information section (Page 3) of this application form and submit it together with the following documents:
 - a. A written essay (minimum of 1500 words/maximum of 1800 words, typed and double-spaced) on one or both (see 5.) of the following topics:
 - i. With population growth steadily on the rise across the Greater Golden Horseshoe, homeownership is impossible for some people due to increased buyer competition and higher prices and interest rates. As a result, many will turn to renting. Can our rental market accommodate the increased demand? Will newcomers and current residents find affordable rental places to live?
 - ii. What are the solutions to address the housing supply shortage in the Greater Golden Horseshoe? What do you anticipate the housing market will look like in five years?
 - b. If applicable, citations must be present. The style of citation is your choice, for example, MLA, APA or Chicago. NOTE: Please ensure your essay meets the required 1500-word count minimum/1800-word count maximum) to avoid disqualification. The word count includes your personalized essay title and the main body text, including section titles, in-text citations and quotations. The word count does not include the i. or ii. essay topic questions, outline, tables, figures, footnotes, references, or works cited.

After double-checking, adding your word-count total on your optional cover page or at the beginning or end of your essay is highly recommended.

- c. To facilitate the judging process, please do not include any personal information (e.g., your name, address, email address) on the individual essay pages (on the optional cover page is fine).
 - d. A detailed resume in your choice of format outlining academic achievements, work experience, volunteer work, and extracurricular activities.
 - e. In a separate Word or PDF document, in three to five sentences, please explain how your chosen post-secondary studies and career goals could impact the real estate industry in the future. For example, whether you are planning to study medicine; engineering; geography; urban planning; law; a trade, such as plumbing or construction; graphic design; app development, etc., how might your studies and your career goals affect one or more of the following: future housing and neighbourhood design and/or development, the home buying and selling processes, or the advancement of the real estate profession.
 - f. Two (2) brief letters of reference (including current contact information for each reference) outlining why they feel that you are a good candidate to apply for this scholarship opportunity. NOTE: The two reference letters do not have to be from a past or current secondary school teacher. You may also consider, for example, neighbours that you help, a coach or leader in the sport/s or club/s you participate in, a lifelong family friend who knows you very well, or your supervisor at a past or present part-time job.
 - g. Your secondary school academic transcript. (Phone screenshots, scans, etc., of the original transcripts are sufficient.) NOTE: We understand that public health concerns and March Break may impact the required procurement of your academic transcript; therefore, we will accept the academic transcript that you last received from your secondary school.
 - h. A phone screenshot, scan, PDF, etc., of offer/s of admission to a post-secondary institution/s.
5. You may enter one essay for each topic; however, one person cannot be awarded more than one scholarship. Duplicate and incomplete submissions will not be considered. If you are submitting an essay for each topic, only one application is required. All application materials must be submitted in one email to scholarships@trreb.ca. Email submissions will receive a one-time confirmation. NOTE: Submissions should be sent as individual Word or PDF documents and not as links or in one single PDF.
 6. All answers must be submitted in English. Answers in other languages will not be read or considered.
 7. ONLY the eight (8) scholarship award recipients will be contacted via telephone on June 4, 2024, or a few days prior, concerning the status of their application. All other applicants will be contacted via email after June 14, 2024.
 - a. A scholarship award of $5,000/not to exceed $5,000 will be paid to each first-place award recipient, a scholarship award of $2,500/not to exceed $2,500 will be paid to each second-place award recipient, a scholarship award of $2,000/not to exceed $2,000 will be paid to each third-place award recipient, and a scholarship award of $1,500/not to exceed $1,500 will be paid to each fourth-place award recipient prior to the start of the first semester of post-secondary studies.
 - b. A minimum scoring standard is in effect. If this minimum standard is not met, TRREB has the right to not award one or more of the eight (8) scholarships.
 8. The decisions of the judges are final and are not subject to an appeal.
 9. Please note that if any information provided by the applicant is determined by The Toronto Regional Real Estate Board to be inaccurate or misleading, TRREB may cancel or revoke any grant, if awarded, in its sole discretion and the applicant will be required to reimburse TRREB for the full amount of the grant, if paid. Writing your essay with the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) is prohibited.
 10. Recipients of the scholarship awards must agree to:
 - a. Provide consent via an email to permit the use of their name/image/essay/post-secondary institution name, etc., to be used for promotional purposes by TRREB, and
 - b. Freely participate in up to six (6) hours of in-person or remote promotional events on behalf of TRREB. NOTE: Due to COVID-19 or seasonal health concerns, this time requirement may be shortened or suspended.
